

PUBLIC NOTICE

Bristol Borough Property Available

Notice is hereby given that the Redevelopment Authority of the County of Bucks is accepting proposals for the acquisition and redevelopment of 3.4± acres of residential land situated along Chestnut and Elm Streets in Bristol Borough, Bucks County, PA. Formerly occupied by rowhouse-style dwellings (circa 1910), the site has been demolished by the Redevelopment Authority. The Redevelopment Authority is now seeking proposals from qualified developers for the purchase and construction of a redevelopment project consistent with the goals and objectives of Bristol Borough. The redevelopment of owner-occupied residential housing, in compliance with the Borough's zoning requirements, is a priority objective. The Redevelopment Authority may, in its sole discretion, consider proposals that are anchored by owner-occupied residential housing, proposals that incorporate compatible non-residential or mixed-use components, or proposals that comply with applicable zoning and land use approvals and demonstrably support neighborhood revitalization, civic purposes, and/or economic development objectives. Proposals must be submitted to the Redevelopment Authority by 12:00PM on Friday, March 13, 2026. Call 215-781-8711 to be provided with the Request for Proposals or download via the Redevelopment Authority's website: www.bcrda.com.
